Foundation pc game guide

Area around the churches, setting wells and decorative trees to improve the land for better buildings. Try to build a residential core with businesses on the outside edges. The villages love . Click a villager and see their wishes. They will eventually return. When people leave because of the unhappy mouse above happiness needs one by one. They don't really care if they are of higher status, but they will require more! if they are. Fashionable people will leave, so focus on your main industries (food, wood, stone) and put them back to work. You will Soon afloat. Two or more! stone cutters or binders can use the same resource. Houses are built only on areas delimited. If the lever A a Forager/Fisherman/Farmer/Market Tender backfill with luxury jobs or those you have a lot of stock in (stones/logs). If you play methodically: build and expand an industry every month of play or what you will avoid big peaks of misery and recovery more! easy. You can recover from almost any mess. Wheat farms tend to fail (only partially planting zoned area) once you have 3 and nothing seems to solve them apart from time. Follow one who has a red statistic and see how far it has to go to fix it. Build Granaries and Warehouses near the places of resources and then buildings that transform them nearby (Tagliaboschi > Warehouse > Carpenter). FaithThe size of the Church is equal to the number of people who can enter. Settlers will go to church, the lines of radius when you build are not difficult and fast areas of capture. rustic churches, but once you get Churches build so that they cover the same area and then demolish the rustic one. Extensions are expensive, simply building more new churches. Open the commercial panel. Unlock at least one commercial route. Open the Trading Resources tab. Try a number against a product (eg 80 wood). Click the green arrow to buy from traders (when they pass) the wood until you have 80 woods in a warehouse or by them or your rally. Click on the red arrow to sell anything over 80 wood for traders. splendouradd decorations (esp like barrels that do not have monthly costs) to add the labist splendour. Add manor banner and topary for splendour. build jobs for the clerothourium of the Clerouro. build a strong and add banners and the area around for the splendour reign. Then fish (if you are coastal), then bread, then cheese. Fishermen will be fishermen who are in uncontrolled territories if they are close. Don't forget to add markets and new stalls for new foods. If you don't promote the settlers wished only berries and fish. Use the trade to sell high-level excess food (cheese +). The wheat never comes to barns, go directly to the mill. Masteries are modular so you can build the core and an extension. Grasp the extension a dorm. Edit parts to add food buildings. The vineyards need painted cultivation areas. The male settlers can be converted to monks. combatbuild to fort. Addungi decorations and (10) training dummies. Add the settlers and the import swords if they are not already making . Give each sword in the Army panel. Everyone trains until they are cassamated. Click on an easy mission. Back All settlers to shipping. Last liquid. There will be 2 popups later asking if you want to let them go fight. As much as the odds are the average or say yes. We'll return the goods and they'll be hurt. Return them back at full force and fillings for the backfillies. Att'empt higher difficulties. Watch your upgraded weapons and trade your swords for them. To study in your manor with a study extension. Cross the play/Always to have the resource panel open so you can impose off it once done) and to identify the lack of food happening. In most games that I find the reversal point is of 100 settlers. At this point things get twitchy and recessions and cockups hit hard and fast. AUNCA The village and the workplace list often to look for immigration and use to ensure that critical jobs are assigned first. Turn off immigration in the village information window to avoid the recession. The proprietary manager panel to see what you need to get up and get bonus per settlers you need markets to be fed, while add types of food (and luxuries) you will need to add a stall to sell it. Place a forest in an area outside the side of your village and have 2 wooden cleats, 2 charcoal, warehouse manufacturers for a good refueling. You can find a forest on any resource and do not interfere with the collection of berries or stones. Although the settlers promote. How to start, the things you may not know or realize. Cut the basic base for your manor with the door with the door opposite you, then you will see the Envoy panel. Promote only people in lots of 4 of 4, to get to the bonus levels in the real estate properties. Money and Recession Sthesso build or buy the territory always notes the cost of maintenance . Set everything except food to sell over 80 units from the beginning. Add churches, food production, add decorative trees to increase the density of the housing. Fill the important jobs.
